» About the University

The University of Mumbai, one of the oldest and premier Universities in India, established in 1857, is presently responsible for guiding and monitoring the activities relating to higher education in 781 affiliated colleges spread across Greater Mumbai and the districts of Thane, Raigad, Palghar, Ratnagiri and Sindhudurg in the state of Maharashtra. It has four campuses, two in Mumbai at Fort and Kalina and two outside Mumbai at Thane and Ratnagiri. The total number of affiliated colleges and total students enrolled in 1949 were 80 and 42,272 respectively.

Today it has 56 departments, 12 specialized centres, 781 affiliated colleges, 2 main campuses, 2 sub campuses, 2 Model Colleges and the 'School of Engineering and Applied Sciences at Kalyan, Thane District as the University's own Engineering College. It has perhaps the largest geographical area under its jurisdiction from Thane district to Sindhudurg district, a spread of more than 600 kms.

The University's national and international rankings have been quite impressive. It has been recently reaccredited by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) with A++ grade (CGPA 3.65).

The University has been progressively bringing in new technologies and programmes of study to make its students and faculty adapt themselves to the changing global requirements.

» About RSET

Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust, a registered public charitable trust was established in the year 1948 at Malad, Mumbai. With an aim to promote various educational, charitable and social activities, the trust has pioneered in providing educational opportunities to various sections of society. During the last six decades and more, the trust has played a very vital role in promoting and providing better education from primary to post graduation in the fields of Commerce, Management, Information Technology and Media Studies. Apart from its educational pursuits, Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust also caters to the social and humanitarian needs of the community.

Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust had started its educational activities for girls, but in due course of time, it has opened its doors to boys as well. At present more than 15,000 students are receiving education in various educational institutions run by the Trust. Thousands of students beyond the boundaries of the campus are enrolled with Kunjbihari S. Goyal online Academy (GOLD).

» About the College

Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust, public charitable trust established its identity in the year 1948 at Malad, a western suburb of Mumbai, to promote social and educational activities. For more than six decades, the Trust has played a leading role in promoting education. Affiliated to the University of Mumbai, the degree college started in the year 1983 and has been named in the memory of Late Seth Ghanshyamdas Saraf. RSET has successfully completed 70 glorious years of spreading the light of knowledge and information in all directions. Today, Ghanshyamdas Saraf college offers a wide plethora of course ranging from traditional B. Com to more contemporary degree courses like BCAF, BCBI, BMS, BFM, BMM, BSc. IT, and post graduate courses in M.Com Accounting & Management.

The college has a women's hostel, Draupadidevi Sanwarmal Women's Hostel and a boys' hostel, Jankidevi Bilasrai Bubna Boys' Hostel. The key strengths of our college lie on its academic excellence, co-curricular activities, qualified & highly motivated faculties and progressive outlook of the management. The college believes in overall development of the students with the goal of education and it leaves no stone unturned to equip the students with complete education so that they can face challenges in life and pursue a good career. It is a matter of pride that our students are placed in well renowned organisations like CRISIL, ICICI, L&T to name a few.

»» About The FDP

Ghanshyamdas Saraf College has organized this Faculty Development Program on Research Methods and Techniques which aims at enhancing the research skills and capabilities of educators and academic professionals in an academic institution. The program typically targets educators, researchers, and faculty members who are involved in research activities or are interested in conducting research in their respective fields. The primary goal is to equip participants with the necessary knowledge and skills to undertake rigorous and meaningful research, leading to quality publications and contributions to their academic disciplines. The program is a mix of theoretical knowledge, hands-on exercises, and opportunities for interaction and collaboration among the participants.

The curriculum of National Level FDP program covers the diverse themes such as introduction to research, Hypothesis formation, sampling designs, online publication process, academic writing and hands on training on R (Statistical Tool). The resource persons are experts in their respective domain and will guide the participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to conduct high-quality research, stay updated with the latest methodologies, and contribute meaningfully to their respective fields.
