ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2023-2024

The NCC unit of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College, enrolled under 8 Mah Girls Bn, with strength of 56 girls cadets, distributed in three years, with 25 cadets in the first year, 17 second year, and 14 in the final year. Throughout the year, these dedicated cadets actively participated in various camps and activities, as detailed in the comprehensive report.

MAY 2023

FIRING CAMP

Cadets of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College attended firing camp on 10th May, 2023. Cadets reported to Ismail Yusuf College at 8:30 Hrs. Commanding officer Navin Sharma Sir and Commander Madhavan Sir visited to encourage cadets. The cadets were given demo wherein they were given information about correct positioning of alignment of foresight and rare sight tip with target Cadets were given proper briefing about use and rule to avoid casualties. Cadets then got to firing range and followed the instructions and command. Cadets also assisted other cadets as helpers. Cadets enjoyed their firing practice and it was fruitful to them. Total Strength was of 26 cadets.

CATC- 402(Combined Annual Training Camp)

CATC-402/TSC Selection camp was held at AECS High School Tarapur from 22nd May to 31st May 2023. The aim behind conducting the camp was to give training to young cadets. The cadets did their physical training, drill and they were also taught the basic topics map reading, field craft and battle craft and health and hygiene. Cadets were enlisted for TSC camp. The camp was very helpful and fruitful for the cadets as they learnt new things. Total strength was of 10 cadets.

ARRIVAL OF DG NCC

On 24th May 2023 Cadets and ANO's of various colleges (Mumbai) were invited on the arrival of DG NCC Gen. Gurbirpal Singh for having one on one interaction with the cadets & ANO's of Maharashtra directorate. Lt. Preeti Jha and our Cadet have attended this event. "JUO. ISHITA SHARMA" got an opportunity to interact with him and brief him about the glorious campus and fort area of Mumbai University.
